or a regard for equity.

Eugenia Burch in no way interfered with Dolly Spanker, who finished sec-ond to her, or with The Southerner, who was third. She did interfere with Major Daingerfield by forcing Robin Hood over against him, and thus bringing the Major to his knees. The Major did not lose over two lengths by this stumble. He was beaten twenty lengths. Robin Hood was not bothered to any extent, and he was beaten more than a dozen lengths.

Injustice to Bettors.

Conceding, therefore, that the contenders, Dolly Spanker and The Southerner, were not interfered with, where was the justice or equity to thousands of people who wagered their dollars on Eugenia Burch? Of course, the stewards seek refuse behind the old excuse that they do not recognize betting. Of course they don't, but the racing associations do, put it in their strong boxes. The stewards could have excused that foul riding on the ground that it was not intentional, and apparently it was not; they could have excused it on the ground that the turn is unusualy sharp, and that it is very difficult to take a horse around it and make him keep his place. It was thatural that Cormack should have tried to cut the sharp corner as closely as possible.

Early Fouls Seldom Count. Where a foul happens so early in a race there are always mitigating circumstances. Let the stewards look upon the two-year-olds starting up the sters pointed forty ways to Sunday on as the barrier is sprung. There, is always more or less crowding when where that turn is near the start.

The programme book should be

Wail from New Orleans. The pool-room situation is still very interesting and amusing. The most comical of all side-lights that have shown on this matter was the tremen-dous wall that came from New Orleans, wherein all the officers of the Crescent City Jockey Club were quoted as saying that the action of the Western Union in cutting off pool-room service would end New Orleans racing. Thinner than gossamer was this statement, issued simply for the purpos of frightening any who might think of investing in the new course, which is to rival the old and established one.

Brutal Steeplechase. Brutal Steeplechase.

In comparison with the steeplechase, the brutal buil fight of the Spaniards is a game of ping-pong. Scarcely a steeplechase is run but horses fall, riders lie still and prostrate on the grass. Then, as the other horses apparently trample the inanimate jockey, the grand-stand resounds with the horrified screams of hysterical women.

Women and men deliberately turn their backs to the race-course while a steeplechase is being run.

NOTES OF THE RING.

Jack Munroe, the Butte miner heavy weight, has begun his course of hard work in San Francisco for his coming pattle with Jim Jeffries, which takes place before the Yosemste A. C., of 'Frisco, on the night of June 17. Mun-roe says that he weights 200 pounds at present, but does not intend to weigh less than 195 pounds when he steps int

Tommy Feltz, the South Brooklyn feather-weight, and Kid McFadden, of San Francisco, will try conclusions in a twenty-round bout before the Savan nah (Ga.) A. C. on Friday night. These boys ought to furnish a fast and vicious battle.

The programme book should be amended so that there would be no races at more than a mile around the Withers. That would do away with the necessity for making the sharp turn. The old saying that it is an ill wind that blows nobody good is applicable of the Contest. Jack Bonner, the Summit Hill miner,
